She's usually spotted in Beverly Hills. But on Wednesday Kyle Richards showed up in NYC along with her daughter Sophia Umansky

Kyle, 47, and Sophia, 16, who could easily pass for sisters, posed for a photo outside the Plaza Hotel that the Real Housewives Of Beverly Hills star shared with her 1.4 million Instagram followers.

And they both looked fashionable as they posted arm in arm.

The mother-daughter trip to NYC was most likely prompted by Kyle opening a second brick-and-mortar store in Southampton earlier last month.

The next day Kyle shared a photo where she was posed next to a Kyle Alene Too Jeep.

Richards looked classically chic wearing a black three-quarter length sleeve fitted jacket over a white top with a pleated, knee-length champagne skirt.

A lover of bling, Kyle made accessories the focal point, layering necklaces and stacking bracelets, but it's her black and gold Love handbag that stole the show.

She kept the shoes simple, however, with a pair of black strappy sandals.

Since the store's recent opening, Kyle By Alene Too in Southampton has been quite the success with a recent trunk show for RHONY's Sonja Morgan.

Meanwhile, Kyle and sister Kim Richards are being sued by a stylist.

According to TMZ, the stylist claims that Kim's pit bull viciously attacked her and that Kim allegedly refused to call 911 unless the woman lied to protect her beloved pet.
