MUSIC MAN

Musician David Foster and daughter Erin enjoy dinner and live entertainment at the Rebels With a Cause gala, benefiting the USC Keck School of Medicine.

"Right now, I can't get enough of the new Beyoncé album. It's so good. I'm really into the Frank Ocean duet, which is called 'Superpower.' Love it."

-ERIN FOSTER

"1 by The Beatles is my favorite album of all time. That whole album is awesome. The history is right in front of your eyes."

LARRY ELLISON ▲

"I love Elvis Presley—especially his gospel music. Nat King Cole too. I'm dating myself, I know. It's just that I love a lot of my parents' music. And even the music dating back to World War II like The Andrews Sisters. I love all of that."

▲ YOSHIKI

"Well, I'm kind of a big Nirvana fan. I really love Nevermind."

Singing Praises

Celebrities and socialites—and their pocketbooks—head to the Rebels With a Cause gala.

The Paramount lot served as the perfect L.A. backdrop for an evening of entertainment and philanthropy, courtesy of the second annual Rebels With a Cause gala. Master of Ceremonies Jimmy Kimmel humored the crowd before Grammy-nominated artist Pharrell Williams and his infamous Vivienne Westwood hat took the stage. The event raised more than $9 million for cancer research at USC, largely due to honoree Larry Ellison, who matched donations through a personal contribution of $4.5 million. Barry Manilow commanded the crowd with a punchy performance, and the soiree channeled Williams' latest smash. The hefty charitable sum undoubtedly left USC's Keck School of Medicine feeling, well, happy. On that note, we just had to ask: Do you have a favorite song, album or musician that you can't get enough of?

JANUARY JONES ▲

"Right now I listen to a lot of Phosphorescent."

BJ NOVAK ▲

"Oh, you know what I heard today? It's called The Feminine... what is it? Can I check on my phone? It's from [around] 1966, and it's these teenage girls that recorded a bunch of '60s covers in their garage. The Feminine Complex, I think. It's a cult group, and I just listen to their album again and again. It's amazing!"

▲ JOHN STAMOS

"I play the Robert Evans book on tape: The Kid Stays in the Picture. I love that book."

▲ DR. CARMEN PULIAFITO

"'Copacabana' by Barry Manilow, but 'Happy' is the song of the year."
